Special Events

Opening Night Film Invisible Valley

Wednesday, March 31 - 8:00 PM
Available Online and at Both Drive-In Theatres
Presented by UGG®

INVISIBLE VALLEY skillfully weaves together the seemingly disparate stories of undocumented farmworkers, wealthy snowbirds, and music festival-goers over the course of a year in California's Coachella Valley. The intimate, on-the-ground profiles drive home the incongruity of the lifestyles that coexist in an affluent community. In exploring the history of the region as well as its future, the film uncovers an undercurrent of a looming ecological crisis threatening it all. Directed by Aaron Maurer

*Only available to view online for 24 hours starting March 31 @ 8:00 PM

Educational Programs

MIKE'S FIELDTRIP TO THE MOVIES

Sponsored by Bentson Foundation, Montecito Bank & Trust, Patagonia, Union Bank, and Volentine Family Foundation

Named for renowned nature cinematographer Mike deGruy, Mike's FieldTrip to the Movies uses filmmaking to stimulate creative, confident, and culturally aware thinkers. This year's Mike's FieldTrip to the Movies Program will be offered to 5,000-6,000 underserved and low-income 4th-6th grade students from Title I schools throughout Santa Barbara County. This year's program will include to-be-announced critically acclaimed films. SBIFF will provide classrooms with a virtual introduction to the art of filmmaking and storytelling through recorded discussions with the filmmakers and artisans from three of this year's top animated films, along with film education study guides and activities.

10-10-10 STUDENT PROGRAM

Sponsored by Final Draft

The 10-10-10 Student Program is made up of 20 high school and college screenwriters and filmmakers from Santa Barbara. This year's program includes virtual workshops and mentorship, with each participant being paired with an industry mentor specifically assigned to them in addition to casting, visual effects, producing, and sound mentors who are there to support the students throughout their production process. The student screenwriters and directors are guided through the steps of taking a film from script to screen. Other program highlights include pitching sessions, table reads, guest speakers, and film talks.

FILM STUDIES PROGRAM

Sponsored by Lynda Weinman and Bruce Heavin

Returning for its seventh year, the Film Studies Program will virtually host 30 undergraduate film students from across the country to attend the Film Festival and take part in a packed curriculum that turns the festival into an interactive classroom. Participants receive access to the films, SBIFF's acclaimed panel series, filmmaker seminars, tributes, as well as intimate Q&As with filmmakers, talent, and other professionals. SBIFF also invites an additional thirty college students in Santa Barbara to take an 11-day Film Festival course through Santa Barbara City College.

Alaskan Nets

Off the coast of southeast Alaska lies a remote island that is home to the Tsimshian Indians of Alaska's last native reserve, Metlakatla. For more than a century, two sacred traditions have defined Metlakatla: fishing and basketball. In an improbable journey, two cousins lead their team and town in search of their first state championship in more than thirty years—the only thing that will bring life back to an island that has been rocked by unimaginable tragedy.

Last Call: The Shutdown of NYC Bars

The hospitality industry is the artistic heartbeat of New York. Thousands of artists, musicians, and actors flock to Queens to work in the service industry to supplement their dreams. In March of 2020 these dreamers put their lives on hold, self-isolating and sacrificing their income as Queens became the global epicenter of COVID-19. LAST CALL follows two local bars and frontline workers in a tale of two sacrifices that saved not only the lives of thousands but also the future of New York.

Listen

On the outskirts of London, a Portuguese couple with three children struggle to make ends meet. A misunderstanding at school about their 7-year-old deaf daughter causes British social services to grow concerned and take drastic action. LISTEN portrays the tireless battle of these immigrant parents who are desperate to keep their family together. Although the family in LISTEN is fictional, everything that happens to them has happened to real families.

Reclaim Idaho

In 2011 many Republican-run states refused to expand Medicaid in protest of the Affordable Care Act. In Idaho that left an estimated 62,000 people without health insurance. Idaho legislators did nothing to address the issue. In 2018, Emily and Garrett Strizich set out with a friend, driving from town to town, knocking on doors, and collecting signatures. The result was something no one expected: Medicaid expansion would come to a vote for the very first time.

Six Angry Women

In 1984, six feminists kidnapped an Auckland University lecturer, beat him, and chained him to a tree. The event sparked debates about gender politics and vigilante justice that divided New Zealand and led to social change. But the identities of the six women and why they attacked the man remained a mystery. Three decades after the attack, director Megan Jones reopens the case and tries to find out not only who the six women were, but what drove them to take such unprecedented action.

Admission for those with reservations begins 45 minutes prior to each film's start time.

Reservations become void 20 minutes prior to each film's start time. Admission will then be on a first-come, first-served basis.

If you arrive without a reservation prior to 20 minutes before showtime, there is no staging area. You will be required to drive around the block and get in the back of the line.

Both drive-in theatres are located at Santa Barbara City College, 140 Loma Alta Road. Please arrive by turning onto Loma Alta Road from Shoreline Drive.

There is no assigned parking, except for select SBIFF Patrons and Sponsors. You will be guided into a space by parking attendants on a first-come, first-served basis.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

If you are feeling sick or unwell, please stay home.

A COVID compliance officer will be onsite at all times.

Masks must be worn by staff, volunteers and attendees outside of their personal vehicle. Masks must cover both the nose and mouth.

Social distancing of 6 feet must be maintained at all times when outside of a vehicle.

Attendees must stay in their vehicles at all times except to use the restrooms.

Restrooms will be professionally sanitized daily.

Multiple hand sanitizing stations will be available.

Contactless ticket scanning is available upon entry.

Please take your trash with you and dispose of it at home.
